RETIREMENT PROSPECTS

Retirement Prospects

Independent Contractor Agreement - Appointment Setter

VERY IMPORTANT: we have designed a system so that you will be successful. However, if you are not good with details, if you are not good at reading and following instructions, if you are not good at following a script, you will fail. In other words, we have 22 years of experience of what works but if you do not follow the formula, you will fail. We explain this up front because we want you to succeed and will help you succeed. Please initial that you will be a good fit for this position:

You acknowledge that you are working as an independent contractor with Retirement Prospects.

You will be responsible for the payment of all taxes from your income, and you understand that Retirement Prospects will not be responsible for taxes and is not withholding taxes from your earnings.

Agreement of ability to work and learn independently

We provide initial training on a 75-minute zoom training. We provide you a recording of that training so that you can review it. We provide you with a detailed instructions on how to excel. Those instructions are recorded videos and audios. Support for you is provided primarily by email and video and audio recordings. Therefore, our position is best for people who learn independently using self-study materials. Those needing a lot of "high-touch" interaction such as daily phone calls would not be suitable for this position. If you have problems with your computer, you understand that is your device and we do not have a way to fix it for you or train you how to use it. You need a reliable internet connection and a wired headset. We use two internet-based services. One is an auto-dialer and the other is an online calendar. We will provide training on how to use those services.

Please initial that you are a self-sufficient mature worker who is able to learn and work independently.

Activity Standards

To be productive, you work hours that are most suitable for the people we call (the professionals you call generally work 9 am to 5 pm in their local time zone), but you choose your hours and work at your location. The company recommends hours between 9 am to 1 pm EASTERN TIME to set the maximum number of demonstrations (appointments). Note that you are calling professionals who work business hours in their respective time zones. Therefore, calling at night or on weekends is not productive.

This position is offered to you because you have represented that you can consistently work 4 hours per day, Monday through Friday, CONSISTENTLY. You understand that the company requires these hours to fill available time slots on a calendar and that any days you do not work, then the time slots go empty on the calendar and the company loses money. You agree that you can consistently work 4 hours per day, 5 days per week. We understand that you may need some days off. You agree to notify us in advance of the dates when you will not be making calls. Email bobrichards@retirementprospects.com

Compensation

You will be paid $45 per demonstration that is attended by the financial professional:

1. ACCURATE information entered into the online calendar
2. Advisor answers the phone when Retirement Prospects expert calls at the set time and advisor is at a PC or laptop and ready for our demonstration
3. Advisor confirms that he can afford to invest in his business and can currently accept new clients
4. Advisor confirms that he sells at least one of these products or services:
 - Life insurance (excluding final expense)
 - Annuities
 - Investment Management, Investment Sales
 - Long term care insurance
 - Financial Planning / Retirement Planning
 - Social Security Consulting
 - IRA and 401k rollovers

Retirement Prospects will send to the advisor a confirmation email immediately after you set the demonstration time and a 1-hour reminder email. We require you to call each advisor prior to their demonstration with a reminder call "Joe, this is simply a courtesy reminder that our business expert will phone you at (time) to demonstrate a method to gain new local clients."

If the advisor cancels the demonstration, asks to reschedule or does not meet the 4 criteria above, there is no compensation. If the advisor does not answer when called, our business development expert will continue to call the advisor and if the advisor attends a demonstration at another time, you will be compensated. You will of course have the opportunity to call the advisor again and get them back onto the calendar.

Compensation payment is made every Friday by Paypal or Zelle. Payment is on Friday for demonstrations completed for the week ended Thursday at 5 pm Pacific. For example, for demonstrations completed during the one-week period from Friday, March 3 to Thursday, March 9 at 5 pm pacific, the compensation is paid on Friday, March 10.

Any documents such as your annual 1099 form, you agree to electronic delivery at the email address you provide below.

I understand and agree to the above:

Below, please provide a paypal address and a zelle address.

These are both free services so that we can pay you (paypal does not charge if you have a PERSONAL account rather than a business account). Because Paypal is not 100% reliable, please also provide a Zelle id (most banks offer Zelle as a free service with your checking account). If you do not already have a Zelle or Paypal ID to supply below, complete this form now and submit the Zelle or Paypal information later in an email to bobrichards@retirementprospects.com
